EDUCATION

University of Tulsa
Tulsa, OK
1987-1989

Major: Psychology

Oklahoma State University
Stillwater, OK
1990-1992

Degree: Psychology Minor: English

Oklahoma State University
Stillwater, OK
1995-1999

Degree: Masters of Science in Family Relations & Child Development with Specialization in Marriage & Family Therapy, accredited by Commission on Accreditation for Marriage and Family Therapy Education. This highly competitive OSU-MFT program accepted 6-9 applicants (out of 150) yearly and was a two-part Masters Degree Program. Students first applied to earn a Masters in Family Relations and Child Development, then applied separately to gain admission into the clinical part of the Masters Program to Specialize in Marriage and Family Therapy, requiring additional schooling.

Coursework Completed:

- Introduction to Marriage and Family Therapy
- Systems Theory
- Theoretical Frameworks in Family Science
- Models and Strategies in Family Therapy
- Professionalism and Ethics in Marriage and Family Therapy
- Issues in Family Science
- Human Sexuality
- Research Methods
- Statistics for Experimenters I
- Diagnostic Assessment and Psychopathology
- Practicum in Marriage and Family Therapy
- Contemporary Issues (Advanced Class) in Marriage and Family Therapy
- Theories of Child Behavior and Development
- Thesis: Conducted literature review and wrote thesis. Designed and implemented three “Joining” assessments (Client, Therapist, Observer) and theorized the better joined the therapist was with clients the less likely clients were to drop out of therapy (proven). Once complete, orally defended thesis to the three MFT supervisors.
- Completed 250 face-to-face hours at the OSU Center for Family Services, an on-site therapy clinic behind a one-way mirror in front of a reflecting team consisting of approximately ten therapists and faculty supervisors. Once clinic face-to-face hours were completed, began internship at Family & Children’s Services where I completed an additional 250 face-to-face client contact hours at while staffing cases in practicum with program supervisors and with on-site supervisors.
